

Supplier Quality Manager Medical Devices (m/f/d)

Apply Now >

Olympus Winter & Ibe GmbH (OWI) | Medical Systems

Type of employment:	Permanent employment	Reference Number:	80039712-28032023
Function:	Quality / Audit / Corporate Governance	Website:	https://www.olympus-oste.eu
Location:	Hamburg

As a high-tech specialist within the Olympus Corporation, Olympus Surgical Technologies Europe is the development and manufacturing center for rigid endoscopy, bipolar high-frequency surgery and reprocessing. With a total workforce of 2,600 employees at nine locations in EMEA and its headquarters in Hamburg, the company stands for exceptional performance in medical diagnostics and therapy, and offers a full range of the most modern endoscopic applications, from single products to procedure-oriented systems solutions.

Your responsibilities

- Ensure the qualification and approval of suppliers supplying externally manufactured Medical devices, decide on the debarring / deactivation of suppliers
- Perform regular supplier audits and initiate as well as monitor required measures
- Prepare and execute global/regional and local quality assurance agreements on behalf of Olympus and make sure Olympus commitments are held in all sites
- Work in a joint team with Olympus procurement and supply chain management for supplier selection, supplier evaluation, supplier development, supplier risk management
- Participate in category (strategy) boards of the category 'Medical Devices'; develop and execute strategy for the supplier quality assurance activities together with the Category Manager for suppliers of the category and promote the strategy within the organisation
- Lead supplier improvement projects
- Analyse supplier quality KPIs, make necessary decisions and initiate actions as required
- Support facility audits by outside agencies (i.e., FDA, ISO / MDSAP)

Your qualification

- Academic degree in Engineering, Life Science, Physical Science or similar and ideally also in Business Management
- Minimum of 5 years of experience in supplier quality management of medical device suppliers with global/regional footprint
- Expertise in the applied interpretation of worldwide regulatory standards and laws applicable to the medical device e.g., ISO, QSR, GMP, jPAL, cGMP
- Certified and experienced Supplier Quality Auditor
- High level of quality tools and methodology skills (e.g. 8D, 5-Whys, FMEA, IQ/OQ/PQ)
- Excellent communication and project management skills; intercultural skills with diverse cultural approach
- Focused, target driven with a positive, can-do attitude and a desire to improve patient experience as well as company performance
- Very good English and German language knowledge, since this is a global/regional role based in Germany
- Travel of 30-40% should be expected

Your benefits

- A comprehensive company pension scheme
 - Employee restaurant
 - Christmas Bonus & Holiday Pay
 - Flexible Working Time
 - Capital-forming Payments
 - 30 days of holiday
-

About Olympus Medical Systems

The Medical Systems Division represents Olympus' largest business domain and is the global market and technology leader for medical endoscopes. Olympus aims to continuously find better and more economical solutions to medical issues which improve the well-being of patients, enhance the working environment for doctors and nursing staff and help to develop the overall performance of health care providers.

More reasons to join our team

